My private opinion is that I will be soundly thrashed in Ohio this fall—Thomas Ewing.

Ben Butler will run for defeat again in Massachusetts this fall. His ambition has got the upper hand of his discretion.

Maine has fallen into the hands of the Republicans completely this year. One year of Demo-Greenbackism is all the people of that State want.

John Sherman is doing some excellent service in Maine for the cause of honest money and national faith. He is striking where every blow counts.

Joe Rankin should have called the Democratic Convention to convene at Manitowoc. That would have been in perfect keeping with Joe's management of his party.

It is announced from London that owing to domestic bereavements, Mr.
Welsh, Ambassador to the Court of St. James, has resigned, and will sail for home about the 20th of August.

We publish to-day the speech of Hon.
Zach Chandler, delivered at the Republican celebration at Madison on Wednesday afternoon of last week. We are assured that it will be read with deep interest and much profit by our readers.

Tilden is determined not to allow his barrel to go down with Ewing in the Ohio disaster next October. What Tilden possesses in an eminent degree is the love for money, and he don't propose to waste it on such a barren field as Ohio.

There is a Democratic paper published in New York City—"The Evening Express,"—which makes bold to say that "the election of Tilden would be an unspeakable calamity to the country, and infinitely worse than defeat to the Democratic party." He likes his money too well to scatter it broadcast in Ohio, where it can do him no good, when his future hinges entirely on New York."

The Hon. James M. Ashley, for merly a prominent member of Congress, and the trusted friend of Lincoln and Chase, will take the stump in Ohio for Foster. This is worthy of special note as Mr. Ashley is a man of great ability, and of remarkable personal courage and sound integrity; and as a speaker is bold, earnest and eloquent.
In 1872 he went after Greeley and from that time to this year has acted with the Democratic party. But with it and its policy he has become disgusted, and now returns to the Republican fold determined to take an active part in the Ohio campaign.

The Greenback candidate for Lieutenant Governor—Colonel W. L. Uley—is the editor of the Racine New Deal. The existence of Greenback newspapers hangs upon a very slender thread, and many of them have gone into bankruptcy because the people would not support them. The Colonel will close his office at the end of campaign, and with this expectation in view, publishes this unique announcement to his subscribers: "Do not send pay for any time that will reach beyond the first of December, for at that time our paper—contrary to the advice of Mrs. Job—will praise God, or curse the devil, and die.
Postage stamps received in payment."

The history of the Democratic frauds in 1876 has been written up by the New York Times, and in this it has done a valuable service to the country. If there were frauds connected with that memorable contest, the people are interested in knowing who committed them, how they were perpetrated and to what extent they bore upon the result. All this valuable information is given by the Times, and as a piece of impartial history its contribution is well timed and much needed. There were frauds in the great Presidential contest in 1876. This can be shown, and is shown with the relentless certainty and clearness of mathematical demonstration; and these were frauds of the most extended and deliberate character—frauds which charged 50 electoral votes in the Northern States and not less than 12 in the Southern States—frauds not in the interest of Mr. Hayes or the Republican party, but frauds in the direct interest of Mr. Tilden and the Democratic party. The Democratic party has been guilty of numerous frauds in its career, but those of 1876, by which it attempted to get control of the Government, stand high above all others.

SMITH AND LUDINGTON.
The Democratic papers are trying to amuse themselves by reporting that there is an irreparable breach between Governor Smith and ex-Governor Ludington, growing out of the result of the State Convention. The Madison Democrat, which has had the hysterics ever since the Convention and celebration were held, professes to publish a true report of language used by Mr. Ludington in reference to Governor Smith. Of course, Ludington is made to denounce Smith, and to swear that he will never

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

Fatal Railroad Accident at Waukegan—Four Men Killed and Seven Seriously Wounded.

Waukegan, Ill., July 26.—One of the most appalling disasters that have ever happened on the Milwaukee branch of the Northwestern Railway occurred at Warren's Crossing, about three-quarters of a mile south of this city, at 6 o'clock this evening, resulting in the death of four men and the serious injury of several others.
As the gravel train, composed of ten flat cars, which had been engaged in ditching at the cut a short distance this side of Lake Forest, was backing into the station to make way for the regular 5:10 express, the flat car in front of the train struck a cow at the crossing, partially throwing the car from the track and telegraphing the balance of the train, with the exception of one car and the engine, which remained upon the track. Nineteen men were employed upon the train, nearly all of whom were seated or standing upon the car which struck the obstruction. The men were thrown from the cars, and many of them buried beneath the debris of the wreck. The news of the accident soon spread throughout town, and in a comparatively short time a large crowd of excited citizens were on the spot doing all in their power to relieve the suffering of the unfortunate men, who lay mangled and helpless at the side of the track beneath portions of the wreck. One by one the bodies of the dead men were removed, amid the piteous cries of the friends who had assembled at the scene of the accident. As they were taken from beneath the cars, the following names were found to be cold in death: Anthony Joyce, section boss, married, and of family, and resident of Waukegan.
John Dugan, married, with family, of Waukegan.
Pat Connor, married, with family, of Waukegan.
Michael Sheridan, married, with family, of Waukegan.
The wounded were found to be:
Austin Dugan, who received a fracture of the left pelvis; in a critical condition.
Mark Smalley, cut on the head and spine injured.
Thomas McNulty, severely bruised about the legs and body; recovery doubtful.
Henry Burns, ribs fractured; will probably recover.
Thomas Halligan, conductor, right leg broken and internal injuries; recovery doubtful.
Patrick Sullivan, slightly injured.
Johnny Joyce, water boy, slightly injured.
P. S.—The conductor of the train has since died from his injuries.

MILWAUKEE, July 27.—Last night the train of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St.
Paul Railway Company ran over a man named Daniel Grose near the National Military Asylum, killing him instantly.
Grose had been an inmate of the Asylum for three years, and was 57 years of age.
He served during the War of the Rebellion in an Illinois regiment.

WATERTOWN, July 27.—Yesterday the wife of Henry Volkmann, a resident of the Second ward, was almost instantly killed at the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul depot while attempting to alight from a moving train. Mrs. Volkmann was seeing her sister-in-law off who was going West, and was leaving the train after parting with her, and in the endeavor to jump from the platform of the coach she was thrown under the cars, the wheels passing over both her legs, severing them from her body at the thighs. The unfortunate woman was carried to the depot, and Dr. R.
M. Wigginton summoned, but she was beyond all help and survived her injuries only an hour. The deceased was about 40 years of age, and had no children. No blame can be attached to the railway company for this sad accident, as had she been on the lookout she had sufficient warning to get off safely.
The wife was told by the baggage man, who saw that she intended to jump from the car,
that she intended to jump from the car was passing him, to wait until the train reached the Junction before stepping from the car, but in her excitement she made the fatal leap.

MEMPHIS.
Fourteen New Cases—Colored Troops in Camp—The Howards.

MEMPHIS, July 27.—The monotony of the day has been unbroken. The churches were all closed except those occupied by colored divines, who, notwithstanding the prevalence of an epidemic in our midst, held forth to-day to unusually large congregations.

Fourteen new cases were reported for the day, ending at 9 p. m., and nine deaths.

ZACH CHANDLER.

Full Text of His Eloquent Ora- tion,

Delivered at the Great Wiscon- sin Republican Reunion,

In the Capitol Park, Wednesday Afternoon, July 23.

Mr. Chairman and Fellow Citizens: I have the right to use the word fellow citizens, and I use it in no narrow sense.
I might use it in a narrow sense, inasmuch as the State of Wisconsin formed a part of Wayne county, where I now reside.
[Laughter.] But I use it in its broadest sense, as American citizens. It has become popular to talk about State citizenship, and deny national citizenship. I am glad that you and I have precisely the same rights to go to Illinois, to South Carolina, to New York, or to Georgia, and express our views and cast our votes as much as we have the right to cast it here in Wisconsin or in Michigan; therefore I use the word citizen in its BROAD NATIONAL SENSE.

FIRES.

La Crosse Reports a Sixty Thousand Dollar Blaze.

LA CROSSE, July 27.—To-day a destructive fire in the northwestern part of the city, near the Chicago, Milwaukee & St.
Paul Railroad depot, destroyed property valued estimated at $40,000 to $60,000; total insurance not yet ascertained.
Ten buildings were destroyed, exclusive of sheds and small structures. The following are the principal losses: Threshing machine and paint shops of Smith & Merrill, which contained unfinished machines and materials, $10,000; nearly or wholly insured; carriage and blacksmith shops of Dittman, Raymond & Co., building and stock, $6,000; insurance $3,000; storehouse of Davis, Medary & Patz, tannery, filled with rice, straw, and other light stock, $2,000; no insurance. Hirschheimer & Co.'s roping shop, $2,000 to $4,000; insurance, $1,000; Hirschheimer & Co.'s flour mill, $3,000; insurance, $4,000; this mill was operated by Yee & Clark, whose loss is $2,000 and insurance $1,000. The city lost $300 in a new horse. The fire was first discovered in the shop of Dittman, Raymond & Co., in the vicinity of the factory.

WATERTOWN, July 27.—Early this morning the Watertown Republican office was almost entirely destroyed by fire. It was insured for $1,500 in the North American. The building containing the office was damaged to the extent of $2,000. The loss is fully covered by insurance.

A SAD CASE.

CHICAGO, July 28.—Nona Trowbridge, whose sisters committed suicide by hanging in their home on Langley avenue a week ago, is lying in a very critical condition at the house of her married sister. She refuses to eat anything, and declares her intention of starving herself to death.

THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW.

The North American Review for August opens with an article of unusual interest from the pen of Richard Wagner. It is entitled "The Work and Mission of My Life." He gives a vivid sketch of his art life from boyhood till he returned to Germany from Paris upon the first representation of "Rienzi" in Dresden. He analyzes the tendency of musical art in Germany since the beginning of the century, treating with unparalyzing criticism the influence of the French and Italian schools upon German music, and explaining what he has attempted to accomplish in elevating the dramatic and musical art. "The Diary of a Public Man," consists of extracts from the diary of one who was closely connected with political movements at the beginning of our civil war. The writer was intimatly acquainted with the principal actors at Washington in the negotiations which were entered into between the Secessionists and those who were using every endeavor to avoid war, and he gives many interesting passages from the secret history of that troubled time. The paper is a valuable addition to the history of the Rebellion.
The third article is an eloquent tribute by Wendell Phillips to the memory of Garrison, and contains a brilliant summary of the life and character of the great abolitionist. The writer claims for Garrison a place in history as a man of profound statesmanship, since he was the first to organize a movement for the abolition of slavery with methods so wise and far reaching that success crowned the work.
"The Power of Dissolution," by Edward A. Freeman, the historian, is a remarkably concise and lucid paper upon the power of the English throne to dissolve Parliament. The next article is entitled "The Founder of the Khebdive." It was written about forty years ago by the late John L. Stephens, the distinguished American traveler. It gives an interesting account of the career of Mohammed Ali, the grandfather of the Khedive who has lately lost his throne, and the founder of modern Egypt. The sixth paper treats of the "Future of Resumption." The anonymous writer finds in the present situation elements of danger which should be considered by all thoughtful men. These arise from the act of Congress of May 31, 1878, which prohibits the retirement of the notes as soon as they are redeemed, and from the act of February 23, in the same year, which occasions an accumulation of standard silver dollars in the Treasury. He finds cause for uneasiness also in what he regards as incomplete conceptions held by the Secretary of the Treasury in relation to a government currency, and in the tendency of Congress to force the government to use silver in the payment of its indebtedness. The scheme of redemption is regarded as defective, because the redeemed notes may be reissued, and because silver has been made legal tender. The concluding article on "Recent Works on Ancient History and Philology" is an instructive review of five publications relating to the history, language and customs of early Aryans, by John Fiske.

THE GREAT SALE

SEASON!!

Will Open on Monday Morning, July 14th, 1879, at

M'Key & Bro's

MAMMOTH ESTABLISHMENT.

To dispose of our surplus stock of SUMMER goods before the end of the Season, we have determined to offer the people of Janesville and Rock County a series of the Greatest Bargains ever known in the annals of trade. Our surplus stock must and shall be closed out at once. To accomplish this end we shall stop at no sacrifice however great, but make prices that will cause an immediate rush for the goods. In our Dress Goods Department!

We have made a general reduction in prices and offer an elegant variety of light fabrics for Summer Wear at less than cost to close out.

All-Wool Bunting worth 50c reduced to 22c per yard.

20 lines of choice Dress Goods in the best American brands, sold at various prices from 20 to 37 1/2 cents per yard, cut down to 15 cents per yard all around. The best stock of BLACK SILKS in the city at old prices notwithstanding the recent advance of 25 per cent in the market.

All-Wool Black Lace Bunting 48 inches wide reduced to 90 cents per yard.

LADIES' LINEN SUITS at 50 per cent less than cost.

Anticipating the recent advance of 40 per cent in raw cotton, we bought largely of Sheetings, Shirtings and all kinds of Cotton goods, and while our stock lasts we have concluded to give our customers the benefit of our timely purchase. We shall therefore continue to sell Cottons at our former extremely low prices. We offer immense lines of Stylish Prints at 5 cents per yard.

Hose at 5 cents per pair. Handkerchiefs at 5 cents each. Edgings at 5 cents per yard. "Janesville Belle," the best $1.00 Corset in the west. Pat. Val. Laces 5 cents per yard. Ladies' Ties 5 cents each. 12 spools of Thread for 5 cents. 1000 Fans at 5 cents each. Ruchings at 5 cents per yard.

We would say in conclusion that we are bound to make a clean sweep of all our surplus Spring and Summer Goods within the next 30 days, and those who wish to avail themselves of this opportunity to buy seasonable goods for a mere song should call at once.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Charlie Payne's

(The Harness Maker's)

COMMANDMENTS!

1st. When ready, thou shalt come to me and trade.

2d. Thou shalt always keep my name in memory, and forget all others in the same business.

3d. Thou shalt honor me and my men with thy trade; and thou shalt not live in the land and continue to trade with me.

4th. Thou shalt not buy of men who advertise to sell at cost; auction stores; peddlers; or other sharks, else thou get machine made and spongy leather, and pay double their value.

5th. Thou shalt not raise thy voice against my prices, as my goods are marked at Rock Bottom.

6th. Thou shalt not dare to pay for goods in bad money, nor say "What if it on the state."

7th. Thou shalt not steal from me, as I want all I have got, and more too.

8th. Thou shalt get good bargains, as I am content to live on small profits.

9th. Thou shalt not ask me to run book accounts, but let thy goods be in cash or notes, and buy no more than thou canst pay for when thou art to go.

10th. Thou shalt buy C. H. Payne's Harness, coarse and fine, his Trunks and Satchels, Whips, &c., and shall always go to his shop to get your repairing done in preference to all others. Thou shalt always get thy money's worth, that thou mayest prosper, and that when in want of anything in my line, I may see thee again.
